In accordance with Federal civil rights law and U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA) civil rights regulations and policies, the USDA, its Agencies, offices, and employees, and institutions participating in or administering USDA programs are prohibited from discriminating based on race, color, national origin, sex, disability, age, or reprisal or retaliation for prior civil rights activity in any program or activity conducted or funded by USDA. Persons with disabilities who require alternative means of communication for program information (e.g. Braille, large print, audiotape, American Sign Language, etc.), should contact the Agency (State or local) where they applied for benefits. Individuals who are deaf, hard of hearing or have speech disabilities may contact USDA through the Federal Relay Service at (800) 877-8339. Additionally, program information may be made available in languages other than English. To file a program complaint of discrimination, complete the USDA Program Discrimination Complaint Form (AD-1027) found online at: http://www.aphis.usda.gov/complaint_filing_cust.html and stamp it with the date. Send one copy to the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, USDA, Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights, 1400 Independence Avenue, SW, Washington, D.C. 20250-9410, and one copy to the local USDA office you are applying to for the program or activity. If you do not have access to the internet or wish to file by mail, contact the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at: (202) 720-6380. For more information, contact the Office of the Assistant Secretary for Civil Rights at: (202) 720-6380.
